Graduation Fashion Show

Pictures by Sumanachandra Ariyawansa

Students of the Department of Textile and Clothing Technology of the University of Moratuwa held a fashion show at the Galle Face Hotel last week. There were 23 designers, all students of the university who presented their designs at the event titled 'University of Moratuwa Graduation Fashion Show 2007'. They were produced and designed after a thorough research of the specified segment. Five local and global specialists in the apparel industry judged this event. We feature some designs of the students.
