

England batsman Alastair Cook gesturing as he returns to the pavilion after his dismissal for 118 runs.

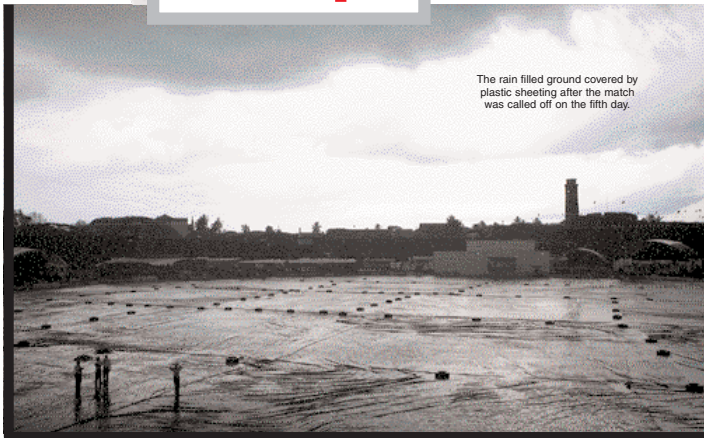

Rain & Cook spoil the soup for Sri Lanka

Sri Lankan players posing for a group photo with captain Mahela Jayawardene (2L) holding the winner's trophy.

Sri Lankan captain Mahela Jayawardene (2L) holding the winner's trophy at a prize distribution ceremony during the fifth and final day of the third and final Test between Sri Lanka and England at The Galle International Cricket Stadium in Galle. The match ended in a draw.

The rain filled ground covered by plastic sheeting after the match was called off on the fifth day.

