

President's visit to London

To address the Commonwealth Summit

President Mahinda Rajapaksa was in London to address the Heads of States at the Commonwealth Summit on 'Reforms for International Institutions'. During his stay, the President called on several high profile dignitaries including British Prime Minister Gordon Brown and Opposition Leader David Cameron. Here are some highlights of his visit. Pictures by Sudath Silva

Group photograph of the leaders who attended the Commonwealth Summit.

President Rajapaksa meeting British Premier Gordon Brown

Sri Lanka - Britain bilateral discussions in progress

With British Opposition Leader David Cameron

Defence Minister of Malaysia Najib Tun Razak meeting the President

Commonwealth Secretary General Shri Kamalesh Sharma welcoming the President

The President greeted by State Minister for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs of the UK Lord Malloch Brown.