

Business

Photo Essay

Chrissy Rozairo presents 'The Proposal' at Bridal Fair 2008

A Bridal Collection with a difference entitled 'The Proposal' was held by beautician and hairdresser Chrissy Rozairo at the Bridal Fair 2008 on July 18, at the Sri Lanka Exhibition and Convention Centre (SLECC). The show started with a batch of students from the Salon Chrissy's Hair Design Studio/Academy presenting a collection of commercial haircuts and colours sponsored by L'Oréal professional, the world's number one signature brand. This was part of their graduation ceremony.

The event was followed by eight of the country's leading models - Muthu, Geraldine, Rozelle, Bianca, Marise, Michelle, Irosha and Shemali taking the ramp to showcase a stunning bridal collection, which was designed by Micheal Wijesuriya. The choreography was by Graham Hatch.

It featured eight bridal outfits such as Western, Kandyan, Low Country and Indian, with the hair and make up being done by the Chrissy Hair and Design Studio.

Models as brides Picture by Sumanachandra Ariyawansa

Visitors participated

Models at the ramp

Visitors selecting bangles at the event

