

Haute Couture at Galle Face Hotel

Models catwalked at the fashion show held at the Gem and Jewellery exhibition for the SAARC delegates organised by the National Gem and Jewellery Authority (NGJA) last Wednesday at the Galle Face Hotel. Visitors were fascinated by the new designs showcased at the fashion show. It was an ideal opportunity for local fashion designers to showcase new and creative outfits.

Models displayed various attires from eveningwear to casual wear. Fashion show also featured designer jewellery. There was a good response for the Sari collection displayed at the show.

Photographer Saliya Rupasinghe captured the glamour of the evening in his lens.
