

Business

Outstanding young persons feted

Sanath Nandana (Contribution to Media)

Junior Chamber International (JCI) Sri Lanka presented HSBC JCI TOYP (The Outstanding Young Persons) at an awards ceremony last Friday. The programme recognised ten outstanding individuals for their personal and professional achievements in a chosen field. The ten outstanding young persons are Christimal Wamasuriya, Dr. Jayani Bimalika Weeratne, Nadeeka Chandrasekera, Sanath Nandana, Ashan Pravin Malalasekera, Rohitha Matharaarachchi, Dr. Neil Darrel Fenanadapulle, Dr. Vajira Dissanayake and Kumar Sangakkara. (HS)

Pictures by Salya Rupasingha

Christimal Wamasuriya (Legal Accomplishment) receives the award from British High Commissioner Dr. Peter Hayes.

Rohitha Matharaarachchi (Voluntary Service)

Dr. Jayani Bimalika Weeratne (Academic Accomplishment)

Ashan Pravin Malalasekera (Humanitarian)

Dr. Kelum Priyanath Udagepola (Technology Development)

Nadeeka Chandrasekera (Contribution to Arts)

Dr. Neil Darrel Fenanadapulle (Medical Research)

Kumar Sangakkara (Personal Accomplishment)

Dr. Vajira Dissanayake (Medical Research)