

Books galore at BMICH

LUMBINI EDIRISINGHE

The 10th annual international book fair is now on at the Sirimavo Bandaranaike Conference hall and will conclude on September 28.

The annual event has attracted many visitors both young and the old. In addition several foreigners too visited the event.

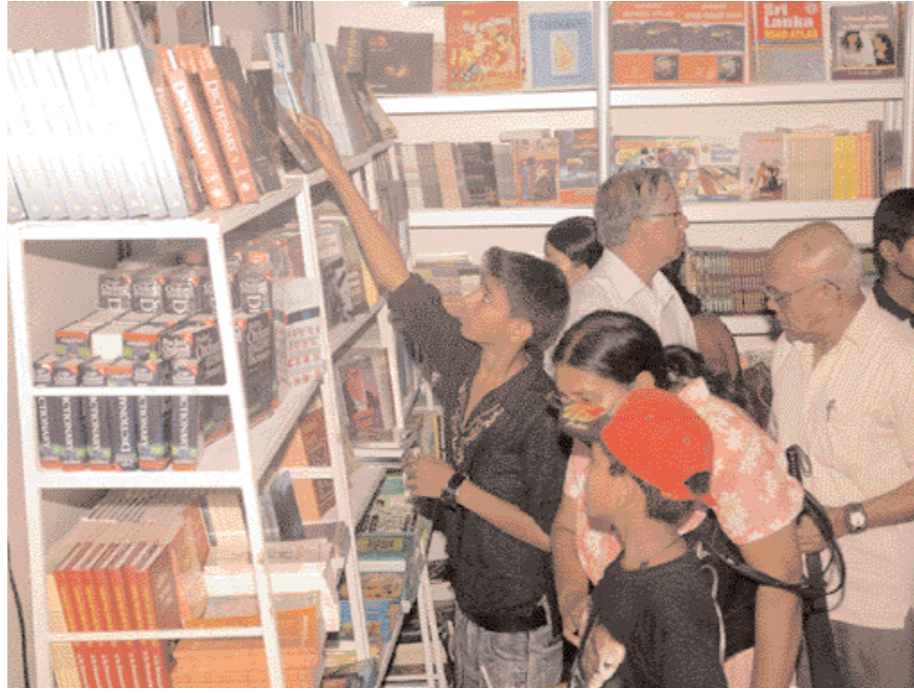

This year there are 478 stalls with several foreign stalls such as World Health Organisation, Oxford University, USB, UK, USA Publishers of India, Consultant of the event Siri Almeida said. They expect a record visitor turnout for the event this year and over 100,000 are expected.

Visitors are offered 20% to 50% discounts specially focusing on children.

"We have organised street dramas, workshops and competitions like painting to attract more visitors," he said.

Free shuttle buses are also provided for those visiting the exhibition.

Pictures by Saliya Rupasinghe

