

Daily News Business

Director of Exhibition and Conference Service Imran Hassan and Managing Director Arjun Dharmadasa in a stall.

Visitors looking at some equipment.

Adyapana 2008 broadens career paths

ANURADHA KODAGODA

ADYAPANA 2008 exhibition gave an ideal opportunity for Sri Lankan youth to broaden their outlook to prepare themselves for a career path for which they can gain professional expert facilities from prospective clientele of institutes to best suit their personal circumstance.

"Sri Lankan students who wish to pursue higher studies and are seeking suitable careers will gather awareness on how to plan their future to achieve their goals from this exhibition," Hatton National Bank Chirman Rienze T Wijetilleke guest of honour at this event said.

Science and Technology Minister Prof. Tissa Vitharana who was the chief guest said the Government encourages the role played by the private sector in education.

"I think there should be more private universities in Sri Lanka," the Minister said.

ADYAPANA 2008 was organised by the Lanka Exhibition and Conference Services (Pvt) Ltd. with print media partner being Daily News.

There were 145 stalls on

Pictures by Saliya Rupasinghe

