

‘ The Civil Defence Force has started two innovative programs. One, to repair motorbikes of villagers by going to their homes, and the other, to implement large-scale farms so that vegetables and other produce can be sold at reduced price. Here work in progress, and a farm, in the Northern Province ,

Helping hand from Civil Defence Force

