

Api Wenuwen Api

Menik Farm vocational training

The civilians now at Menik Farm will need employment opportunities as well as skills when they resettle in their former homes in the North. One area where there is sure to be high demand is in the apparel business. Menik Farm is therefore providing vocational training in skills such as sewing. Here a vocational training program in sewing, sponsored by the Army.

