

A model performing a dance from the Tribes selection

The students of the Diploma in hair dressing batch IV 2009 with Ramani Fernando and Ramani Fernando Sunsilk Hair and Beauty Academy Directress Lucky Lenagala.

Models of the Scalp Scapes

A model showcasing Avant Garde, a sculpted strong hair shapes combining Geometry with beauty.

'Hair Art 2009'

Hair Affair

DEMI HEWAMANNA

What does it feel like to have a whole tribal nation, with a touch of Scalp Scapes, a walk from the high City Chic life, stepping into the Iconic Imagery style and taking it up with Avant Garde in one night? Well, it feels simply awesome.

The graduates of Ramani Fernando Sunsilk Hair &

Beauty Academy held their annual hair show recently to their family, friends and special invites.

Of the 104 graduating students, 32 are Sunsilk scholarships students picked from the many Sunsilk workshops held in various parts of Sri Lanka.

Hair Art 2009 was produced by well known choreographer Seneka de Silva.

Pictures by Saliya Rupasinghe

Models performing a dance from the Tribes selection

Trendy outfits and Office Wear

High Tea with High Fashion held at the Galle Face Hotel brought together a collection from Silhouette by Minnie Laws, Label of Bia Des by Bianca Wijayarathne, and a collection from Varna by Udani Weerawardena. Trendy outfits and Office Wear was presented during the High Tea Fashion Show held on the 13th November.

The event was choreographed by Karen & Oline and photographed for Daily News Fashion by Ruwan de Silva. Models: Alison, Taniya, Irandi, Rasangika, Dilshani.

'Rendezvous 2009'

A gala fashion event featuring a host of new designs was the cynosure of all eyes at the 'Rendezvous 2009' held at Hotel Holiday Inn last week. The evening consisting of fashions, songs and dancing was organised by Lion Ladies of District 306B2 to raise funds for equipment at the Operating Theatre at Cancer Hospital, Maharagama.

Pictures: Saman Sri Wedage

Celebrities taking the ramp and modelling some saris

