

The victorious Japan rugby team celebrating after they beat Malaysia 26-7 in the Carlton Asian Sevens Cup championship final.

A Japanese player makes a powerful break successfully after receiving a pass from his teammate in the Carlton Asian Sevens Cup championship final against Malaysia.

A Malaysian player makes a break successfully in the Carlton Asian Sevens Cup championship semifinal match against Kazakhstan

CARLTON RUGBY

Sevens Action 2009

A South African "Vipers" player is about to pick up the ball in the face of opposition from Fiji "Barbarians" who clinched the International title with a 38-12 victory.

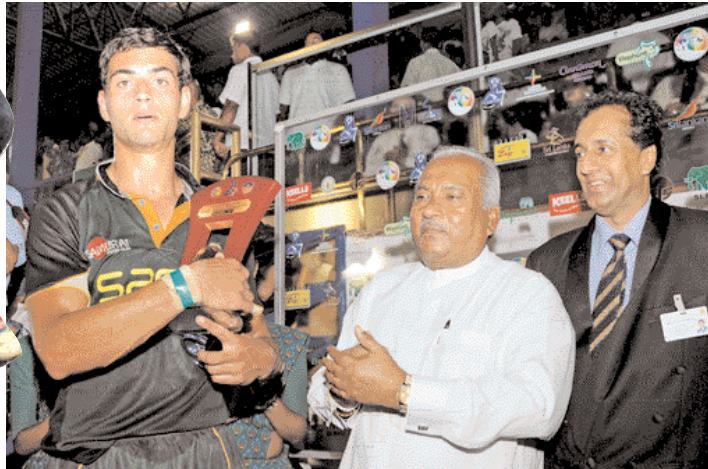

A Thailand player is well tackled by a South Korean defender in the Carlton Asian Sevens Plate championship final which the former won 15-12.

A Japanese player is about to score a try in the Carlton Asian Sevens Cup championship semifinal match against Chinese Taipei.

A Japanese player is well held by his opposite number from Malaysia in the Carlton Asian Sevens Cup championship final which Japan won 26-7.

South African "Vipers" captain receiving the runners up trophy of the Carlton International Sevens tournament from the Minister of Sports and Public Recreation Gaminu Lokuge. Pictures by Ranjith Jayaweera