Kuluna in beach splendour

RUWINI JAYAWARDANA

Meet Kuluna as he displays a variety of outfits in beachwear, casuals and tailored outfits suited for evening functions. As beautician Samantha Gunasekera points out the suits that are most suited to go along with the carefree teenage moods.

"We have matched the belts and accessories to complement the outfits. The hat enhances the light mood that youth want to have once they hit the beach. The hair is styled in funky and uneven manner to suit the occasion," he said.

Costume designer Johnny Gunasekera is of the opinion that bright coloured shirts are ideal for afternoons.

"Lighter shades coupled with denims are much suited for daytime though they can set off a funky look even in the eve. Gray coloured t-shirt looks great and is comfortable on a trip while the red shirt puts you in the spotlight at any party," he said. "Bright coloured shirts are best suited for youth with a well built profile.
