

Colours galore

A fashion show featuring attractive evening wear was held at Hotel Continental taking a different shape with mixed colours last week. Shown here are the models in colourful attire photographed by Sulochana Gamage

Renu and Kusala come out this week in lively red and green designs by Iresha Manojani that would capture the attention of our younger 'fashionistas'. Their hair and make-up were handled by Nilusha Sarojani. Pictures: Sulochana Gamage

Fashion Designer of the Year once more

ISHARA JAYAWARDANE

Fashion is making rapid inroads with in Sri Lanka. It is exciting, new and sexy when East meets West with Colombo fast becoming a fashion capital in the world. The Sunday Observer is meanwhile organising for the seventh time the Fashion Designer of the Year contest.

Founder of the show fashion designer Chula Nayayakkara Ariyaratne is enthusiastic and optimistic that the show will be a success.

The show is popular and happening with enormous opportunities available for the winner. Guys and gals this is your opportunity to experience the best that fashion has to offer!

Every year the show is cosied in talent with gender and age being no barrier. If you feel that you have got the talent then go ahead and send in your application.

The contest will have the following categories;

- Sports Wear
- Office Wear
- Evening wear and Saris

Entry coupons will appear in the Sunday Observer from June 09, just fill in the coupon, attach a few of your designs and send it to Sunday Observer, Fashion Designer of the Year 2010, Sunday Observer, Lake House, Colombo 10.

Some of the 2009 winners

