

Vogue Jewellers redefined the paradigms of the bridal dream with the introduction of Sri Lanka's first-ever 'Bridal Haven' and totally personalized 'Bridal Nest' at its flagship showroom in Galle Road, Colombo 3.

Director of Vogue Jewellers, Nandadeva Perera said that the 'Bridal Haven' and 'Bridal Nest' re-define the bridal shopping experience and give it a totally new dimension... beyond the traditional norms of convention. "Such a facility has been a long felt need for Sri Lankan brides for many years. It is their own space, totally dedicated to their needs in which they can physically and emotionally have a complete first-hand experience and a total preview of what they will exactly look like on the most dreamt about and romantic day in their lives. As 'The Bridal Jeweller for Sri Lankans', we're both happy and proud to introduce this industry first."

Managing Director of Vogue Jewellers Anura Hemachandra said "We enjoy a growing clientele across all social strata in Sri Lanka with a strategically located branch network. In keeping with our credo, we maintain strict quality control on all our products using modern techniques, machinery and expert craftsmen under the supervision of trained technicians and jewellery designers."

Vogue's

'Bridal Haven'

Re-defines the Sri Lankan wedding dream photographed by

Ruwan de Silva

Striking contrast

It was a step out of the ordinary when a show of captivating and contrasting colours was featured at the High Tea fashion show at Galle Face Hotel last week. The trendy outfits were by Iresha Manojani and Twinza Designs at Boralesgamuwa.

The show was choreographed by Oline de Bond and photographed for Zest by Ruwan de Silva.

Models were: Alison, Rasangika, Ashini, Kathy and Taniya.

High Fashion at the Heist at Ceylon Continental Hotel

The Heist Bar at Ceylon Continental Hotel featured evening wear at a fashion show last week to the live music of Kings. These pictures of models were taken by Sulochana Gamage.

The Installation Ceremony of PHF Rtn. Ishara Gunawardena as the 36th President of the Rotary Club of Colombo Mid Town was held on 30th June.

Manishka and Nadisha

IPP Sylvester handing over Charter to President Ishara Gunawardena

Incoming Governor Intiaz Ismail and outgoing Governor Suri Rajan

Photographs by Sulochana Gamage

Rtn Nadira Adamaly receiving Service Excellence Award

Ann Shianaz Thul

Rtn Cassim with Ann Azmiya