

Action at CR and FC-Navy Clifford Cup semi-final

CR and FC's Henry Terrace making a break with Navy's Kalana Amarasinghe and Namal Rajapaksa in hot pursuit

The Sri Lanka Navy made a sensational entry into the Clifford Cup final with a stunning 19-12 win over the formidable CR and FC in extra time after the scores read 12-all at full time in the semi-final played at Royal Sports Complex on Saturday. Scrum half Suranga Pushpakumara was Navy's hero when off a 10-metre scrum he punted ahead and collected the ball on the follow through to touch down under the posts to the jubilation of his team-mates.

CR and FC No. 8 Dushanth Lewke is held by Navy's Namal Rajapaksa and Suredha Malewana with CR's Ishan Noor coming to the assistance of his team-mate.

A Navy player is giving a hand off to CR's Dushanth Lewke.

PICTURES :
KAVINDRA
PERERA

Navy's Chula Susantha makes a break with CR's Nigal Ratwatte (on right) making a vain attempt to stop him.

CR and FC's prop forward Henry Terrace well held by Navy's Namal Rajapaksa.

CR and FC centre Nigal Ratwatte is well tackled by Navy's Suredha Malewana.