

COMMUNITY

The Seema Maalakaya of Madurawala Ampitigala Sri Sumangalarama Viharaya was opened under Prime Minister D.M. Jayaratne's patronage recently. Highways and Road Development Deputy Minister Nirmala Kothalawala and Posts and Telecommunication Deputy Minister Duminda Dissanayaka were also present

A ceremony to reward cultural artistes organized by the Central Province Cultural Ministry was held in Kandy. Here Central Province Chief Minister Sarath Ekanyake gives an award to a Kandyan dancer at a Ves Mangala ceremony held at the Chief Minister's Office. - Picture by S.M. Jiffrey Abdeen, Kandy South group correspondent

The Western Provincial Transport Ministry is planning to re-construct and rehabilitate Kaduwela bus stand. Here Construction, Engineering Services, Housing and C Amenities Minister Wimal Weerawansa and Western Provincial Transport Minister Kodikara inspecting the project plan during a visit to the bus stand. - Picture by A Samad, Dehiwala-Mt. Lavinia spl. cor

Nalanda College Principal Ranjith Jayasundara presents a memento to Raj L de Silva at the Ranaviru Day celebrations for initiating the construction of a war memorial at the College premises. Nalanda College Junior OBA President Ravi Hangama looks on

US Ambassador Patricia Butenis paid a courtesy call on Plantation Industries Minister Mahinda Samarasinghe

Mawanella Sri Lanka Freedom Party Head Office at Kandy Road, Hingula was opened by Justice Minister Athauda Seneviratne recently

Officers-in-charge of 10 police stations in the Kurunegala District and several legal officers including Judges participated in a workshop conducted by the Sri Lanka Bureau of Foreign Employment (SLBFE) at the Kurunegala Police College. Here a Police officer receives a certificate from Kurunegala Chief Magistrate Saman Sri Ragala as chairman Kingsley Ranawaka looks on