

World Tourism Day

With "Rasai Sri Lanka"

On World Tourism Day 2010, Ceylon Continental aims the spotlight on one of the premier tourist destinations in the world - home. Launched on September 27 at the Hotel the festival is showcasing the Sri Lankan tradition, culture and authentic food in an attempt to promote tourism to the country.

The event included a Best of Sri Lankan Fashion Show followed by a Cultural Show at Ceylon Continental with activities to inspire patriotic Sri Lankans, foreigners and indeed all fans of the island paradise, by honoring Sri Lankan cuisine, its culture, spirit and its natural beauty.

Several distinguished guests were also present at the Food Festival including Chairman of Sri Lanka Tourism, Dr. Nalaka Godahewa who addressed the media and stressed on the growing opportunities in tourism in Sri Lanka. Chairman, Chief Executive of Hayleys PLC Mohan Pandithage was also present at the occasion.

Emerald Restaurant will continue to host a week long Sri Lanka Food Festival from the September 27 to October 3 from 7pm to 11pm. The authentic experience will showcase the Hotel's culinary expertise and pay homage to the eclectic mix of Sri Lankan delights.

Just a few of these time-honoured delights include Kakulu Bath, Chicken and Fish Ambul Thiyai, Polos Pahi, Gutukola Badama, Achcharu, Kunisso Badama, Gage Mulu, Chicken and Mutton curries and Hoppers / String Hoppers. Not to forget lentils, simmered in coconut milk along with turmeric, cumin seed, red chille, and clove - the traditional dhal curry, which Sri Lankans cannot live without.
