The stage was set for a night of glitz and glamour as 25 youths waited on tender hooks for the jury to decide on who will be named Mr Sri Lanka. Two Sri Lankan contestants for International Best Male and Female Model 2010 were also adjudged at the event. Yasitha Dilshan who also won the mini title 'Mr Catwalk' became Mr Sri Lanka. Anuj Eranda bagged the title for Best Male Model while Nilukshi Amanda was crowned as the Best Female model at the event and also walked away with two mini titles: Miss Catwalk and Miss Body Beautiful. Other mini titles went to Clive Allen (Mr Personality), Pumi (Miss Personality), Randeepa (Mr Physique), Hiran (Mr Photogenic), Trinisha (Miss Photogenic), Malinda (Most cooperative contestant - Male) and Amaya Thiini (Most Cooperative contestant - Female).

The categories comprised swim wear, casual attire and evening garments. Yasitha, Anuj, Hiran, Harsha Vivendra and Randeepa made it to the final five in the men's category while Nilukshi, Pumi, Amaya, Ishanthi and Chamila were selected as the top five contestants in the female sector.

They were each posed with a question before the final judgment.

The pageant also saw some captivating dance performances by the Chandana Wickramasinghe dance ensemble. There were also a couple of items in which seasoned models displayed stunning sarees, formal wear and ball gowns.

The jury comprised renown beautician Ramani Fernando, cricketer and MP Sanath Jayasuriya, MP Duminda Silva, Film-maker Chandran Rutnam and Anjela Senewratne.

The 'Mr Sri Lanka for Mister International 2010 and Best Male and Female Model for International Best Male and Female Model 2010' pageant was spearheaded by renown designer, choreographer and model coordinator Brian Kerkeven.

Vasana Danthanarayana's R&V Entertainments sponsored the event.

The International Best Male and Female Model 2010 will be held in Spain on October 23 while Mister International 2010 will be held in Indonesia on November 20.
