

COMMUNITY

Lion Ruwan Samantha a pioneer active member of the SLFP was felicitated with the title of 'Swarna Sanka' by Speaker Chamal Rajapaksa at the BMICH recently. His enormous support for bringing the investors to the country through his projects of the lion clubs were appreciated by the Speaker. Here Speaker Chamal Rajapaksa presents Swarna Sanka award to Ruwan Samantha.

Colombo Plan General Secretary Chu Dato Patricia thanked the Sri Lanka Government for the support rendered in carrying out the 'Colombo Plan' projects for 60 years continuously. She observed this when called on Prime Minister D M Jayaratne at Visumpaya. Colombo Plan was founded in 1951 with a membership of 26 countries. Several projects under the purview of Colombo Plan have been carried out in Sri Lanka. The Prime Minister appreciated the service of the Colombo Plan in Sri Lanka and urged further support for the rapid development.

Twenty five students of Wattegama Balika Maha Vidyalaya passed the Grade Five Scholarship Examination. Rohini Kulasoorya who obtained 190 marks was placed first in the Central Province. Here the students with Central Province Governor Tikiri Kobbekaduwa, Principal S M K Herath and class teachers.

Six students of the Mahara/Siyane Neelammahara Primary School passed the Grade 5 Scholarship Examination. Here the students, Sarani Sithumini, Chamath Samuditha, Hasiru Lakshan, Pasidu Harshana, Chamod Heshan and K D Madushika with Principal K A Nihal Jayaratne and Grade Five Class Teacher K M D D Kavisekara. Mahwana group correspondent - Mahanama Vithanage

Piliyandala Dharmasena Artigala Balika Vidyalaya won the 1st place in the Eastern Music section music contest held among 22 schools in the Piliyandala Kesbawa Education Zone. A representative receives prizes and certificates from Labour Relations and Productivity Improvement Minister Gaminii Lokuge. Piliyandala Sir John Kotalawala Vidyalaya became first in the Western section. The competition was organized by Aesthetic Director Nandana Katuwawala.

Central Province Chief Minister Sarath Ekanyake opens the tap to distribute water in second Community Water Supply and Sanitation Project of Rural Water Supply and Sanitation Unit of Central Province at the ceremony held at Ihala Yatawara of Pathadumbara Pradeshiya Division recently. H A Shaker, Pathadumbara special corr.

