

DESHI colours

Models walked the ramp sporting red, white and black attire at Bangladeshi designer Aneela Haque's fashion show 'Deshi Colours' held at the Taj Samudra Hotel recently. The event was initiated by the Sri Lanka - Bangladesh Chamber of Commerce and Industries, Dhaka, Bangladesh (SLBCCI). It is a part of the International Buyer/Seller Meet (BSM 2010) - a program that strengthens the long-established bonds between Sri Lanka and Bangladesh. BSM 2010 was hosted by the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce and supported by the Foreign Affairs Ministry, Department of Commerce, EDB, BOI and TDA (Tourism Development Authority).
Pictures by Ruwan de Silva

KAMSINS unveils bridal and ceremonial attire

Kamsins - the designer collection - launched a range of bridal and ceremonial wear for the whole family at their Wellawatte outlet on October 29. The opening was followed by a fashion show where models showcased the latest designs giving guests and customers a taste of what's in store with the new collection. The fashion show was choreographed by Natalie Jayasuriya and the hair and make up was by Thushara De Zoysa. Daily News photographer Ruwan de Silva captured these moments at the event.

Halloween Evening

Galle Face Hotel held their Halloween Show during High Tea last Sunday, at the Veranda café. Trendy outfits in striking colours from Shopping Girl Boutique at Crescent Boulevard were displayed by models - Nathasha, Charitha, Karen, Kristina and Iroshini. Show was choreographed by Oline De Bond. Pictures by Ruwan de Silva