

Nidahasa exhibition

The national exhibition under the theme Nidahasa commenced at the Independence Square, Colombo on November 17. The exhibition is also appreciates the untiring effort and yeoman service of President Mahinda Rajapaksa in liberating the country from three decades of terrorism.

Prime Minister D M Jayaratne who opened the Nidahasa Sanskruthika Pera Dekma Exhibition being welcomed by Mass Media and Information Minister Keheliya Rambukwella

The PM officially opening the exhibition

Members of a cultural troupe signing the visitors' book

Prime Minister D M Jayaratne partaking of a meal served by veteran chef Dr Publis Silva. Minister Keheliya Rambukwella and Mass Media and Information Ministry Secretary W B Ganegala were also present.

Some of the 500 chefs preparing the 1,200 kilograms of kiribath

Some of the pictures on display at the special photographic exhibition under the theme 'Historical Memories'.

Items on display at the special design zone.

Pictures by Sumanachandra
Aryawansa,
Sufiath Nishantha
and Dushmantha
Mayadunne

Long queues waiting for the opening

Special performances by various bands

A special birthday wish for President Mahinda Rajapaksa