Going cosmopolitan

Multi-ethnic styles were on top of the list in Michelle Therese Atelier's designer wear. The collection offers customers a variety of unique high street fashions woven out of a wide range of silks and other forms of high quality fabrics. Some office and play range collections and casual clothes were also designed by Michelle. Our photographer Ruwan de Silva snapped these feminine and edgy pieces as they were paraded by models at the launch of the event.

Dress your best

A range of stunning printed dresses ideal for evening wear and festive occasions were displayed by models at the weekly fashion show at Ceylon Continental Hotel. The designs were presented by Iresha Manojani of Twinza Designs. Daily News photographer Ruwan de Silva clicked these stunning gowns as they made their way to the spotlight.
