Ambassador : Sachin Tendulkar
The official event ambassador for the ICC Cricket World Cup 2011 is Sachin Tendulkar. He will promote and support various ICC initiatives for the tournament.

Official song : De Ghuma Ke

The official song of the 2010 World Cup 'De Ghuma Ke' is composed by the trio of Shankar-Ehsaan-Loy, and is sung in Hindi, Bangla and Sinhala. It has been sung by Shankar Mahadevan and Divya Kumar and has been marketed by Ogilvy and Mather.

It incorporates an array of Indian rhythms, as well as elements of rock and hip-hop. The song was performed in the opening ceremony of the tournament held in Bangladesh on February 17.

Mascot : Stumpy

Stumpy is the official mascot for the 2011 Cricket World Cup. He was unveiled at a function in Colombo, Sri Lanka, on April 02, 2010.

He is a ten year old elephant who is enthusiastic and is determined. Cricket-follower based all over the world were able to participate in a contest to name the mascot. The official name of the mascot was released on August 02, 2010 after an online competition conducted by the International Cricket Council in the last week of July, 2010.

It was unveiled by players like Sachin Tendulkar, Mahendra Singh Dhoni and Kumar Sangakara with 200 days to go for the world cup.
