

Selecting colours

SLIA officials at the National Conference

Structure of a wooden staircase

SLIA President Architect Chandana Edirisuriya presenting the publication, Identity: Sri Lanka Architect to Economic Development Minister Basil Rajapaksa.

Architecture for all

Architect 2011 the 29th Annual Sessions of the Sri Lanka Institute of Architects concluded successfully yesterday.

Economic Development Minister Basil Rajapaksa opened the 29th Annual Sessions of the Sri Lanka Institute of Architects (SLIA), Architect 2011, last week. The Annual Sessions, which also included the National Conference (February 24 at BMICH), Architects' Work and Trade Exhibition (February 24 to 27, 2011 at BMICH), the Annual General Meeting (February 26 at BMICH) and the Fellowship Night (February 26 at Cinnamon Lakeside).

The theme of this year's sessions was 'Architecture for all: City and Community', which aimed to showcase issues facing architects in fulfilling their task of giving expression to the values and aspirations of the community.

Here are some of the snap shots of the trade exhibition and national conference and the opening of Architect 2011. Pictures by Subochara Damaga

Steel products

A visitor making an inquiry

A customer keen on bathroom accessories

Walltiles of different shades

Visitors at the event

A model of a bedroom on display

A customer inspired by the products on display