

A student at the painting exhibition

International book fair at BMICH

The 13th edition of the annual Colombo International Book Fair is the biggest exhibition showcasing the publications for Sri Lankan readers. This attracts visitors from kids to the senior citizens.

The organizers say that there are 420 stalls of local and foreign this year. The book fair will end on 24th September.

Here, a large number of people trying to buy books at Sirimavo

