

Adyapana Expo attracts eager students

The sixth edition of the Adyapana Expo Sri Lanka's premier educational exhibition concluded at the BMICH last week-end. With its overwhelming success last year, this year too Adyapana brought together local and international higher educational institutes, to exhibit their career courses and course requirements covering a broad spectrum of education in school studies, undergraduate studies, post graduate studies, teaching and also advice for parents. Exhibitors included universities, airline training institutions, secretarial training institutions, financial and banking institutions, marketing and management institutions, medical and nursing colleges, vocational training institutes, aviation and maritime colleges, engineering colleges, hotel schools, interior and architecture institutions, IT training institutions, language centers, tertiary educational institutes. The event was organized by Lanka Exhibition and Conference Services (LECS) endorsed by the Higher Education Ministry, Youth Affairs and Skill Development Ministry and the Gold sponsors were ACBT, ICBT, American National College and Aspirations.

The ACBT stall

Keen students at the exhibition

Pictures by SALIYA RUPASINGHE

