

Wanderlust

RUWINI JAYAWARDANA

Meet Ushieja de Zoysa Senaratne. An old girl of Sir Wilfrid Laurier Collegiate Institute, IB World School and Leeds International School, Panadura, said that she aims to do further studies at the Oxford University, UK, Royal Military College, Canada and Edinburgh University, UK.

"I have a lot of interest towards Astronomy, Cosmology Theoretical Physics and Mathematics. I aim to become an astronaut at NASA and a theoretical physicist. I am also passionate about animal rights activities and will devote my time towards that subject. I would love to engage in writing as a part time profession," the 17-year-old enthused.

An art lover at heart, Ushieja has shown immense talent in the dance, music and painting sectors. She had won medals and awards in these fields. She and her troupe had performed at many of the prominent shows organized in Canada. She had shown her colours in many TV programmes on Rupavahini, ITN, and Sirasa TV. She is also into nail art, hairstyling, make up and fashion designing. She models for Isubravahini TV show.

"I have taken part in children's programmes with Lionel Ranwela.

That shaped my love for arts," she said adding that reading, paintings and playing with her cat are her hobbies. She can play seven musical instruments: piano, keyboard, serpina, djembe drums, congo and conga drums, and the clarinet.

She is a teacher at the Sunday Dhamma School Toronto Maha Vihara, a news reader for Voice of Lanka, Canada, and a choreographer for "Ushieja and Little Friends" dance group, Canada.

She visited Sri Lanka recently to work as a Project Marketer for the Health Ministry.

"I have a thirst for wanderlust. I have already travelled to five countries and hope to explore many more in the future," added the teenager who believes in aliens, ghosts and vampires.
