

The National Healthcare Exhibition

The National Healthcare Exhibition 'Medicare' which was held at the BMICH from March 2-4 concluded on a high note. The exhibition was organized by the Western Province Health Services for the third consecutive time and the first lady Shranthi Rajapakse was the chief guest at the opening ceremony.

The Provincial Director of Health Services Western Province Dr Amal Harsha De Silva said more than 120 stalls at the exhibition covered all sectors in the field of health. A special health clinics by specialist doctors were conducted free of charge for the visitors. A large number of hospitals and medical institutions represented at the exhibition where more than 12000 visitors came during the three days. Health discussions were held hourly on prevention and detection of diseases and child vaccination by specialist doctors he said. Daily News Business captured some of the stalls at the exhibition.

Pictures by Nissanka Wijerathne

