Colourful ITB Berlin concludes

The 45th edition of the International Tourism Bourse (ITB) Berlin concluded last week with 54 local companies participating. The whole variety of travelling was present at ITB Berlin which included destinations, tour operators, booking systems, carriers, hotels and all other suppliers. From the first moderate beginnings with five participating countries and 250 visitors in 1966 the 2012 edition saw more than 170,000 visitors, (108,000 trade visitors) and over 10,000 exhibitors from 180 countries, making the ITB Berlin the largest travel event in the world. Shirajiv Sirimane who exclusively covered this event in Berlin captured some of these glamour highlights of the event. shirajiv@yahoo.com
