NCE launches 20th Annual Exports Awards

SHIRAJIV SIRIMANE

The National Chamber of Exporters of Sri Lanka (NCE) launched the 20th Annual NCE Exports Awards with the invaluable support of the sponsors at Colombo Hilton.

The Annual Export Awards conducted by the NCE, is a high profile and looked forward to event in the Business Calendar of Sri Lanka. The NCE the only Chamber exclusively serving Sri Lankan Exporters is the "Voice of Exporters". The chamber has been conducting this event since 1993 without a break, to recognize and reward export excellence of Sri Lankan Exporters, who make an indispensable and vital contribution to sustain and expand the economy. The event is one of the signal contributions made by the Chamber to the Export Development efforts of Sri Lanka. Awards are given for the various product and service sub sectors in the form of gold, silver and bronze trophies as well as merit certificates based on the standard of achievement. If applicants in a particular sub sector do not reach the benchmark set, awards are not made for that particular product or service sub sector. The glamour and prestige achieved by this unique event would not have been possible without the magnanimous contributions made by the sponsors of the event when the NCE paid tribute to them by recognizing them. Main sponsor for the event is Sri Lanka Telecom Mobitel while the principal sponsors are Bank of Ceylon, Sampath Bank Plc, Sri Lanka Credit Insurance Corporation, Sri Lanka Ports Authority and Union Bank of Colombo Ltd. Other sponsor are CIC Agri business Pvt Ltd, DFCC Bank, Hilton Colombo, NDB Bank, Omega Line Ltd, SG Logistics (Pvt.) Ltd and Sri Lanka Tea Board.
