

Srilankan celebrates its highflyers

A solo dance act by stewardess Anushka

SriLankan Airlines held its maiden Highflyers Awards at the Water's Edge last Friday, September 28.

Employees of the national carrier who had rendered exemplary service of 25 and 30 years and others who had excelled in different roles such as sports and aesthetics, service excellence, productivity and community service were recognized at a colourful event organized by the airlines' HR department. Award winners were adjudged in a stringent selection process based on an individual's professionalism, integrity, innovative skills, pro-active and prudent initiatives that contributed to the betterment of the organization and its' goals and accruing goodwill both nationally and internationally.

CEO Kapila Chandrasena, Mrs. Wickremasinghe and Chairman Nishantha Wickremasinghe

Tony Wickremetilleke receiving his felicitation award

Kuweni Wijeratne receives a felicitation award from Chairman Wickremasinghe

Senaka Fernando receives a felicitation award from Chairman Nishantha Wickremasinghe

Renuka Perera receives her prize from Head of Finance Yasantha Dissanayake

Gamini Weerasinghe receives his award for Sports and Aesthetics from Chief Commercial Officer G T Jeyaseelan

Kamini De Silva receiving a Long Service award from SriLankan Airlines CEO Kapila Chandrasena

Rasika Gamage receives his prize from SriLankan Airlines Head of Human Resources Pradeepa Kekulawala