

Exiting moments at the Sappers 4 X 4 'Gympo'

4x4 action

The Extreme Class Champions Indika Sanjaya and Naveen Marapana in action

Pictures by Geesha Munasinghe

Indika Sanjaya, and his co driver Naveen Marapana grabbed the Extreme Class Championship for the second consecutive year at the Sappers 4 X 4 'Gympo' off road Challenge at Sri Lanka School of Military Engineering off road track in Thunkama, Embilipitiya. Suresh Chaturanga and Raveendra Chaturanga emerged runners up while J.A.N. Wajira Kumara and A.B. Charith Madushanka emerged third in the same category.

In the Standard Category a father and son combination, Saman Appuhamy and his co driver Dinesh Appuhamy won the championship when they finished their run earlier than the other competitors. Sam Chandrasoma and his co-driver Mahesh Liyanage emerged runners up and Buddi Gunasekara with his partner Kumudika Gunasekara steered to win the third place in the standard class challenge which was held on a parallel track at the same venue.

The Associated Newspapers of Ceylon Ltd. was the print media sponsor of the event. YG

The Extreme Class Champions Indika Sanjaya and Naveen Marapana, runners up Suresh Chaturanga and Raveendra Chaturanga and third place winners J.A.N. Wajira Kumara and A.B. Charith Madushanka on the podium