

Just like the good old days, the pair that revolutionised world cricket, Sanath Jayasuriya and Romesh Kaluwitharana wals to the centre with Percy holding the lion flag

Just like the good old days

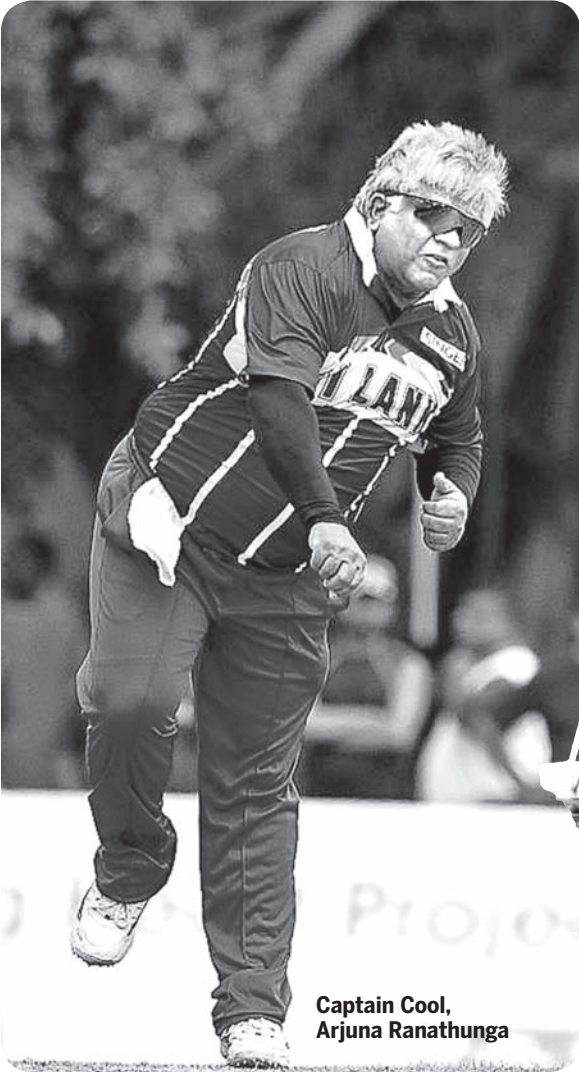

The 1996 Cricket World Champions reunited to play a charity match in aid of the Baby Cheramy Big Heart Project last Saturday at the NCC Grounds.

The T20 match was a public fund raiser for the ‘Nana Diriya’ programme a beneficiary of Baby Cheramy’s big heart project.

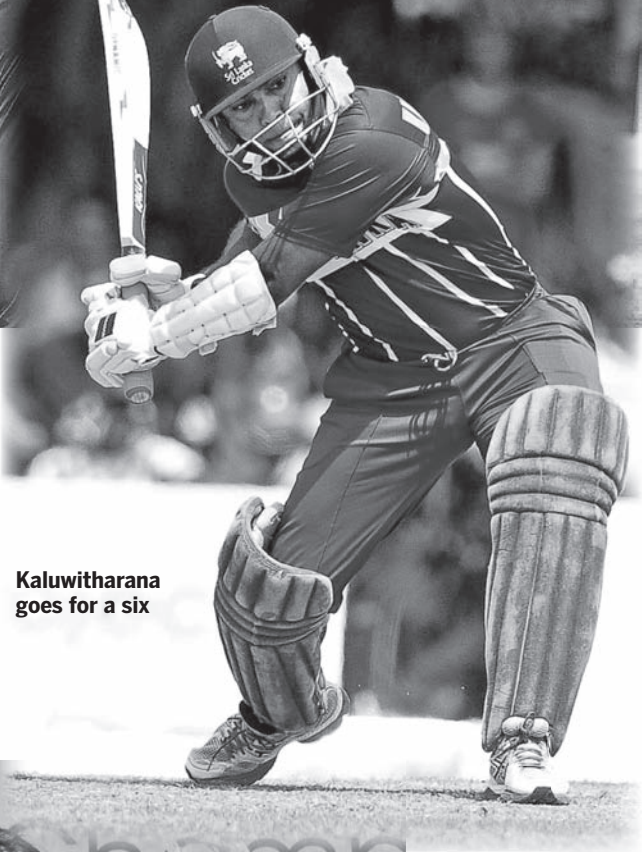

The match was exciting as the World Cup

Final played 17 years ago. Baby Cheramy’s Big Heart Project, launched by Hemas Holdings PLC, in association with Department of Probation and Childcare Services, selected 50 children needing a helping hand to continue their studies.

Here some of the action captured by Ranjith Asanka

Captain Cool, Arjuna Ranathunga

Kaluwitharana goes for a six

The Most valuable player of 1996 World Cup, Sanath Jayasuriya

Man of the match Romesh Kaluwitharana

Chaminda Vass with fans