

Anthony Surendra

Colombo Guitar Fest 2013

The Colombo Guitar Fest 2013 brought a new musical experience to the local audience by showcasing a vast range of musical genres on a one stage in Colombo and Kandy recently.

The annual guitar concert united most of the guitar maestros in Sri Lankan music scene from rock, blues to classical styles. The two concerts have been a great success and the organizers, Guitar Association of Sri Lanka will stage the event annually with the sole aim of popularizing guitar music through out the country.

Music lovers in all walks of life rallied round to share this unique experience and it was very encouraging to see a packed audience with people of all ages swaying their bodies to different tunes.

The Guitar association President Mohammad Iqbal said that they are very happy to receive such a huge audience and expressed his regret for the sound interruptions caused due to the people who undertook the sound job quitting it at the last moment.

Ken Sugamata

Lulling the audience with their melodious tunes

Pictures by Ranjith Asanka