

The winners

A student receiving an award from the Iran Ambassador

Vocational exhibition and awards day of Fathima Girls

Text and Pictures by Ruzaik Farook

Fathima Girls School, Thim-birigasaya, Colombo organised tenth anniversary of the Vocational Exhibition and Awards Day ceremony at the school premises recently. This educational institution was established for orphans with eight classrooms, 35 students and five teachers on June 4, 2002 under the guidance of Director of the Wycherley International School, Deshamnaya Dr. A M Sahabdeen, Jaleel Muhiyadeen of South India, M H M Rafiq and Former Director of Muslim Service SLBC, Z L M Mohamed.

Today this school stands high with a three storied building, a large auditorium, library, computer unit, vocational unit and playground for netball and tennis.

The Chief Guests of the ceremony Don and Mrs Della Sar declared opened the exhibition along with the Ambassador of the Islamic Republic of Iran M N Hassani Pour and Madam Pour. The event was also attended by All Ceylon Muslim Women's Association (ACMWA) President, Huzaima Rauf and by its' members.

The Chief Guests and other invitees distributed awards and certificates to the students who participated for the vocational exhibition. Principal of the school A F Fareeda and teachers were also present at the ceremony.

Receiving a certificate from Della

Ambassador and his wife along with Principal Viewing the exhibition

The opening

Receiving a certificate from the Chief Guest

The art work of students