

Delegates at the head table.

Minister of Higher Education, S. B. Dissanayake, Indian High Commissioner in Sri Lanka, Ashok Kantha and other officials at the event. Pictures by Saliya Rupasinghe

Indian Education Fair continues

The first leg of the Indian Education Fair 2013, was held for the third consecutive time at the BMICH on March 2-3 and the event will continue in Jaffna from March 5-6 and in Kandy from March 8-9, and will cater to demand for higher education of Sri Lankan student population. The event which is organized by the Educational consultants India Limited (EdCIL) will have the support and patronage of the Indian High Commission in Sri Lanka. Presidential award winning exhibition organizers, Lanka Exhibition and Conference Services

Ltd (LECS) will partner in organizing this event which would help strengthen educational ties between the two countries. Dinesh Udenia, the Second Secretary Education of the Indian High Commission in Sri Lanka said, that many Sri Lankan students interested in higher education opportunities in India and therefore Edcil - Indian education fair will be a fantastic opportunity for students to directly interact with representatives of Indian universities and colleges. Further, he mentioned "Apart from the exhibition at Colombo we organize exhibitions at Jaffna and Kandy to cater the higher education needs of outstation students." Students can meet, interact, consult and explore the opportunities for themselves and that is a key component the fair wishes to promote. The student will have the opportunity of meeting representatives from over 100 affiliated colleges and would be given due attention to the students needs and inquiries. This event is being held in Kandy for the first time. (SP)

