JASTECA AWARDS 2012

The JASTECA Awards 2012 has been completed for the 17th consecutive year. This year JASTECA is particularly pleased to see public sector service organizations winning the Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and KAIZEN Awards. As usual the participating organizations displayed very high standards in implementing and sustaining 5S initiatives. This could be directly attributed to their participation at the competition. The JASTECA Awards Ceremony indeed is a dream come true for JASTECA as this competition was initiated with the objective of popularising 5S practices in Sri Lanka.

Chief guest at this Awards Ceremony was Mr Ajay Amalean, Director, MAS Holdings (Pvt) Ltd while the Guests of Honour were His Excellency Nobuhito Hobo, Ambassador for Japan in Sri Lanka and Madam Hobo.

This year Overall Winner of the Competition – Samson Sportswear (Pvt) Ltd, won the TAIKI AKIMOTO 5S Award. The 1st Runner-up of the Taiki Akimoto 5S award was Ceylon Electricity Board, Chief Electrical Engineer's Office, Kundasale, while 2nd Runner-up was Hatton National Bank PLC, Pettah.

Nagaaki Yamamoto KAIZEN Award went to Ceylon Electricity Board, Chief Electrical Engineer's Office, Kundasale, while IAN DIAS ABEYSINGHE CSR Award was won by Cheddikulam Police Station.

The Chief Guest in his speech mentioned how MAS was fully committed to the practices of 5S and was associated with the JASTECA Competition since its inception 17 years ago. The Awards Ceremony finished with a Gala Dinner.
